

YEE LO BEE LODGE will be a unique 40-room hotel situated on a lush 40-acre site in Huatulco. Inspired by beauty and biodiversity, Yee Lo Bee Lodge will take guests on a journey that offers the best in genuine hospitality, bespoke tours and activities and a farm to table dining experience that is set in a sustainable and community driven development.

Guests will enjoy foods served from the on-site organic farm with adventures that range from jungle & river excursions to agri-tourism for the best coffee, chocolate, and mezcal in Mexico, and wellness retreats.

The property is 6 km away from Biulu Residences and Biulu Condos properties located in Tangolunda Bay, and 2 km from the golf course Las Parotas.

Additionally, 24 acres (12 hectares) of available land will be used for farming high-value agriculture and aquaculture products. Plans include the organic production of:

- Botanical seeds and oils
- High-density protein products from crickets and grasshoppers
- Aquaculture products such as shrimp and tilapia
- Vegetables
